The Butcher's Pour
November 2026

A thoughtful lineup for the holiday table.

Two Mountain Riesling 2025
Yakima Valley, Washington | 12.8% ABV

This off-dry Riesling opens with hints of hay, green pear, wildflowers, and dust. Ripe citrus, green apple, and a touch of minerality carry through the palate, with a lingering finish.

Pairs well with: Roast turkey, glazed ham, and savory or gently spiced sides.

Sugar Loaf Wines Apple Tree Lane Sauvignon Blanc 2025
Marlborough, New Zealand | 13.5% ABV

A fresh Sauvignon Blanc from New Zealand's celebrated Marlborough region. Its bright, food-friendly style brings a refreshing white-wine option to a generous holiday spread.

Pairs well with: Herb-roasted turkey, green vegetables, and seafood appetizers.

Huteau Boulanger Gamay 2023
Loire Valley, France | 12.5% ABV

Catherine Boulanger leads this family domaine, where liveliness and generosity are central to the wines. This Gamay comes from a Loire estate with a distinctive mix of red grape plantings in the Muscadet region.

Pairs well with: Roast turkey, cranberry dishes, and a charcuterie or cheese board.

Calyptra Mosaiko Pinot Noir 2024
Alto Cachapoal Valley, Chile | 12.8% ABV

Made from hand-harvested estate grapes and aged in stainless steel, this Pinot Noir shows ruby color with violet reflections. Fresh cherry, plum, forest fruit, herbs, and a mineral note lead into soft tannins and lively acidity.

Pairs well with: Roast turkey, mushroom dishes, and roasted root vegetables.
